Did I hurt you? I am sorry
I had no intention whatsoever
I just couldn’t help myself from saying
Or from doing all of that

I don’t want for us to debate
What was wrong and stupid and fake
I won’t say a thing to save me
To defend the things I’ve said or done

I just want you to remember
That I love you, always will
All I’m saying is I’m sorry
Please forgive me, for I have sinned
